

Why Did Hertz Charge Me $200? Complete 2025 Explanation

A $200 charge from Hertz is most likely a temporary security deposit hold to cover potential extra costs like fuel, tolls, or damages, which is refundable +1-877-684-4354. Alternatively, it could be an early cancellation fee for a "Pay Now" reservation made less than 24 hours before pickup, or an additional charge for things like late returns, tolls, or cleaning +1-877-684-4354.

1. Security Deposit Hold

Most often, Hertz places a $200 authorization hold on your credit or debit card at pickup +1-877-684-4354.

This ensures coverage for potential incidental costs, such as:

- Fuel charges for not refueling before return
- Toll fees
- Minor damage or cleaning fees +1-877-684-4354

The hold is temporary and released after the car is returned in good condition +1-877-684-4354.

2. Early Cancellation or “Pay Now” Reservations

If you made a “Pay Now” reservation and canceled less than 24 hours before pickup, Hertz may charge $200 as an early cancellation fee +1-877-684-4354.

This protects the company from losing revenue on short-notice cancellations +1-877-684-4354.

3. Extra Charges for Late Returns or Add-Ons

Hertz may also apply a $200 charge for:

- Returning the car late +1-877-684-4354

- Adding services like GPS, car seats, or toll passes +1-877-684-4354
- Excessive dirt, cleaning, or other incidentals +1-877-684-4354

These charges are separate from the deposit hold and reflect actual incurred costs

4. How to Confirm the Charge

- Check your rental agreement for deposits, add-ons, and cancellation policies
+1-877-684-4354
  - Contact Hertz customer service to verify if the $200 is a hold or an actual fee
+1-877-684-4354
  - Review your bank statement; holds often appear as pending and do not reduce your actual funds permanently +1-877-684-4354
